Reinstatement Process

A tobacco retailer that fails to renew a permit before the permit expires may apply to reinstate the permit by submitting to the local health department:

- An application for a tobacco retailer permit. Submit the application at https://brhd.org/forms/tobacco-retailer-permit/. (Note: Application must include a copy of the valid Utah State Tax Commission Cigarette/Tobacco Products License or Electronic Cigarette and Nicotine Products License for the location being applied for);

- The $30 fee for the reinstatement of a permit; and

- A signed affidavit affirming that the tobacco retailer has not violated the prohibitions in Subsection 26-62-201(1)(b). (See Utah Code 26-62-203; Administrative Rule R384-324-3)

An affidavit to sign and submit can be found below.

retailer for this location has not violated the prohibitions in Utah Code Subsection 26-62-201(1)(b) after the permit expired.

       Utah Code Annotated Subsection 26-62-201(1)(b) is as follows:
       (b) A tobacco retailer without a valid permit may not:
            (i) place a tobacco product, an electronic cigarette product, or a nicotine product in public view;
            (ii) display any advertisement related to a tobacco product, an electronic cigarette product, or a nicotine product that promotes the sale, distribution, or use of those products; or
            (iii) sell, offer for sale, or offer to exchange any form of consideration, tobacco, a tobacco product, an electronic cigarette product, or a nicotine product.

By signing this I am affirming that the tobacco retailer has not violated the prohibitions in Utah Code Subsection 26-62-201(1)(b) after the permit expired.

I declare under criminal penalty under the law of Utah that the foregoing is true and correct.

Signed on the ____ day of _____, _____, at_____.
